FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dayton, Ohio – Local business, theNorthGate.org is pleased to announce it will be rebranding itself as "City Church Dayton" beginning December 1st, 2016.

theNorthGate was founded in 2008 in Vandalia, Ohio before moving to Downtown Dayton January of 2011. theNorthGate is a non-denominational Christian Church committed to serving the people of Dayton in a loving, non-judgmental and beneficial way. theNorthGate meets on Sunday mornings and Tuesday evenings, building creative programs for individuals, families and children of all ages.

Founder Charlie Carroll said, "We have accomplished more than we could have ever imagined 9 years ago. We are humbled to have earned the trust of so many within our community."

Carroll believes the rebranding to be best in light of the residential boom going on Downtown:

"In all honesty we have been hesitant in the past to identify ourselves as a "church" due to some of what has happened over the last several years here in the United States. More than being "just another church" theNorthGate has always been serious about serving people within our community and doing it in both a nonjudgmental and beneficial way.

With an ever increasing population downtown, our Congregation, Elders and Trustees believe it is best for both our organization and community to rebrand ourselves as City Church Dayton. We are excited for more people to know we exist and we believe this to be another step in the right direction.

In 2011 theNorthGate purchased the 51,000 sq ft former headquarters of the Salvation Army in Downtown Dayton. Since, theNorthGate has invested close to a million dollars in the facility and are proud to have accomplished it all debt free.
